Application for Summer 2018

Thank you for your interest in joining the Octavia Project!

The Octavia Project Summer Institute is a free intensive summer program where young women and trans, nonbinary, or gender non-conforming youth from Brooklyn explore their love of science fiction and fantasy in daily workshops that combine science, tech, art, and writing.

Our program is a month long and runs from July 5 – August 3, with an Orientation on July 3. We meet four days a week—Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays—from 1pm-4:30pm. Workshops are held at the Pratt Institute MFA in Writing Community Space at 424 Classon Ave, Brooklyn.

Early bird application deadline is April 15th. Final application deadline is June 1st.

A completed application includes answers to all the questions and a parent/guardian signature in two places. Email completed applications to info@octaviaproject.org. Or, mail completed applications to: Octavia Project, PO Box 381031, Brooklyn, NY 11238.

Questions? Email info@octaviaproject.org or call (516) 350-0804.

An Octavia Project participant will finish the program armed with:

- An online multi-media portfolio of their work that can be used for college, job, or internship applications.
- Strengthened skills in digital-media, art, and writing, as well as a greater confidence in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM).
- Access to a network of professional women and opportunities for fellowships and other leadership opportunities.

Octavia Project participants are:

- Young women and trans, nonbinary, or gender non-conforming youth from Brooklyn who are 13 to 17 years old.
- Available to attend workshops four days a week, from 1-4:30pm, July 5th-August 3rd, as well as an Orientation on July 3rd.
- Into science fiction, fantasy, fan-fiction, art, writing, science, tech, gaming—or interested in learning more about these topics!

Parent/Guardian Consent Form

To Parents/Guardians of Minors: Thank you for completing this form. The completion and retention of this form by the Octavia Project is mandatory for your child's participation in the program.

The Octavia Project uses your child's interest in science fiction to build 21st century skills: science and tech workshops will focus on programming, engineering, and digital and media literacy, while art and writing workshops focus on creativity, innovation, communication, and critical thinking. Our participants will have access to women working in science, arts, tech, and humanities; and leadership and online publishing opportunities. The program runs Tuesday-Friday from 1pm-4:30pm, July 3-August 3, and takes place at Pratt Institute MFA in Writing Community Storefront, at 424 Classon Ave, Brooklyn.

I hereby give permission for my child to participate in the Octavia Project, described above. The following conditions apply:

- a) I understand that my child is fully responsible for her actions and behavior at all times during her involvement in the summer program.
- b) I verify that my child is physically and mentally capable of participating in the Octavia Project. I have indicated below any permanent or temporary medical or other condition(s), including special dietary and/or medication needs, which should be known to the Octavia Project and any medical provider who may provide treatment to my child.

Does your child have any medical needs we should know about? ☐Yes ☐No

If yes, please explain:

Does your child have any allergies or dietary restrictions we should know about? ☐Yes ☐No

Medication allergies, if applicable:

Environmental allergies, if applicable:

Food allergies, if applicable:

Dietary restrictions, if applicable:

c) In the event of any injury or illness suffered by my child, I authorize the Octavia Project or any of its representatives or teachers to act on my behalf and to obtain any necessary medical treatment for my child at my expense.

d) In an emergency I can be reached at the following phone number(s) (please list home, work, and/or cell phone numbers):

Name and phone number(s) of additional emergency contacts:

I certify that I am the parent or guardian of _____, who is under the age of eighteen years, to whom this consent form applies.
