

Octavia project

APPLY NOW FOR SUMMER 2015

Octavia Project is a free summer program where young women from Brooklyn explore their love of science fiction and fantasy through science, tech, art, and writing.

Our program is 4 weeks long, from July 7 – July 31. Workshops are Tuesdays – Fridays, from 3pm-6pm. Workshops will be held at the New Lots Brooklyn Public Library.

You will finish the program armed with:

- An online multi-media portfolio of your work that can be used for college, job, or internship applications.
- Strengthened skills in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) as well as digital-media, art, and writing.
- Access to a network of professional women and opportunities for internships in your chosen field.

Octavia Project participants are:

- Young women* from Brooklyn who are going to be in grades 9, 10, 11, or 12 in the 2015-2016 school year. (*Octavia Project welcomes participants who are trans, gender non-conforming, and questioning.)
- Available to attend 3-hour long workshops, Tuesday through Friday, from July 7-July 31.
- Into science fiction, fantasy, fan-fiction, art, writing, science, tech, gaming—or interested in learning more about these topics!
